

Strobe light

The strobe lights are a visual indicator of an alarm. They are used to show the status of a fence after an alarm condition offering a visual alarm event memory. A galvanised bracket for the strobe light is also available.

Specifications:

Supply: 12Vdc